REGULAR MEETING BEFORE THE CHRISTMAS PARTY. Business will include the election of five officers and one director to the Board for 1980. Chairpersons Emma Louie and Micki Nakagiri will present the nominations slate at that time. New business will include discussion on a "Future Field Trip". Short program will present John Yee and

"Clarification: Newhall Tunnels"

GUM SAAN JOURNAL. Editor Margie Lew welcomes articles, ideas for articles and seeks volunteers for the Journal Committee. Call 222-4375. Let's keep this outstanding project alive and well.

DON'T MISS Stan Lau's talk on "Los Angeles Chinatown" at the regular meeting of the Historical Society of the Centinela Valley, Red Cross Building, 610 N. Eucalyptus, Inglewood. This Wednesday, Nov. 28, 7:30 PM.

EL PUEBLO GENERAL PLAN. Informational Open House will be held Nov. 30 and Dec. 1 between 10 AM and 1 PM at the Avila Adobe courtyard just off Olvera Street. (This is El Pueblo State Historic Park Headquarters.) Drawings and displays supporting the general plan, which will determine site development (exhibits, shops, restaurants, etc.) for the next 20 years, will be shown. Public input will be solicited. The Society encourages members to attend and comment. Exhibits and parts of the development should rightfully reflect the history of the Chinese in this area, next to the original Chinatown. Contact Eugene Moy for details, 726-9754.

AMAH and the Night Visitors is being presented as a benefit for Association of Asian/Pacific American Artists (AAPAA) Dec. 7, 8, 14, 15 in five performances at Bethany Presbyterian, 1629 Griffith Park Blvd, 8PM. Matinee on 15th at 3PM. $3. Ernest Harada, Alvin Ing, Deborah Nishimura, Virginia Wing, Robert Ito. Tickets from Helen Young, 283-4532 or Beulah Quo.

CONGRATULATIONS to Chinese Historical Society of America on the rededication of the Adler Place Museum and new exhibition. Ceremonies on November 17 in S.F. were keynoted by Superior Court Judge Harry Low.

THANKS to Mr. and Mrs. C.F. Chang for letting the Board meet at "Little Friends" noodle restaurant in 1979. Also Bill Hong, Hong Kong Lo
