Program: Dr. L. Eve Armentrout-Ma

"Sampan's, Junks, and Chinese Fishermen in the Golden State"

Dr. Armentrout-Ma will present the colorful story of California's early fishing industry which was started by the Chinese sojourning immigrants of the 19th century. Included in the talk will be photographs of Chinese fishing villages, their sailing crafts, and commodities caught and sold. This will be a memorable evening that will add to each of our individual sense of Chinese American heritage.
