Since 2007, Pedro Chan has been collecting and donating thousands of Flying Tigers and WWII artifacts to both Chinese and American museums. Currently, he is serving as an adviser to the Pacific Aviation Museum, Pearl Harbor, Chinese American Museum of Los Angeles and Flying Tigers Historical Organization in the United States. He is also the Honorary Director of Kunming Flying Tigers Museum and advisor to the Zhijing Flying Tigers Museum, Hunan, China.

Chan is also the organizer of a photo exhibition of "Salute to WWII Flying Tigers in China", which debuted on Capitol Hill, Washington, DC in November 2014 and is currently on tour at a number of libraries and museums.

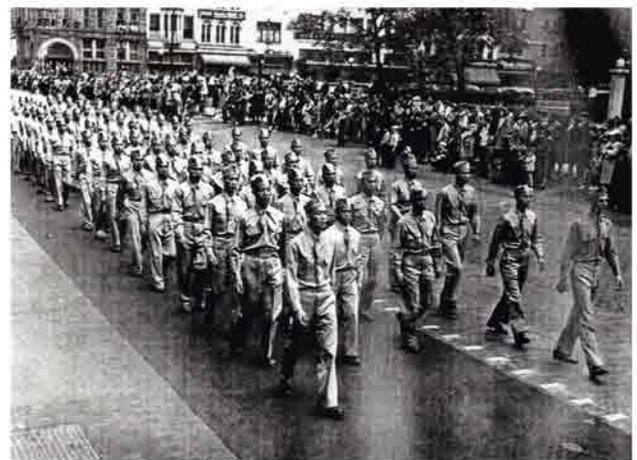

"Flying Tigers" is the general name for The American Volunteer Groups (AVG), China Air Task Force (CATF) and the Fourteenth Army Air Force (14th AAF). They were all under the command of General Claire Lee Chennault to aid China against the invading Japanese.

On December 7, 1941, Japan attacked Pearl Harbor, which led the United States' entry into WWII. The U.S. and China became allies. Therefore, the volunteer AVG was disbanded and the CATF of the U.S. Army Air Forces, officially took over air operations in China. In early March, 1943, the 14th AAF was activated and replaced the CATF.

The Flying Tigers gradually controlled the sky and gained air superiority, finally winning the war! Today, the legacy of the heroic Flying Tigers still lives on and will be remembered for the better relations of U.S. and China.

The Annual CHSSC BBQ

Annual Summer Barbecue on August 22, 2015 was very well attended. This barbecue is a CHSSC tradition that allows us to connect with our members and enjoy some good food. Although it was a hot day, everyone was in good spirits, and we are glad that they were there to see all the new projects we have been working on in the past year.

Many attendees went on to attend ballroom dancing lessons hosted by our friends over at CACA and later Chinatown Summer Nights in the evening.

Thanks to O.C. Lee for taking pictures of our very good looking members and volunteers. Hope to see you all again next year!

Mission Statement

The Chinese Historical Society of Southern California was organized in November 1975. The purposes of the Society are:

- 1) to bring together people with a mutual interest in the important history and historical role of Chinese and Chinese Americans in southern California;
- 2) to pursue, preserve and communicate knowledge of this history; and
- 3) to promote the heritage of the Chinese and Chinese American community in support of a better appreciation of the rich, multicultural society of the United States.

OCTOBER 2015

The Chinese Historical Society of Southern California is celebrating its 40th Anniversary on Saturday, October 17, 2015

- The 40th Anniversary Celebration will be held at the Hilton of Los Angeles/San Gabriel Hotel, located 225 West Valley Blvd., San Gabriel, CA 91776.
- The theme of the dinner is “Looking Back, Moving Forward: CHSSC at 40,” inspired by Susan Dickson in her examination of Gum Saan Journals.
- The focus of our celebration is based on the four “P”: people, place, programs, and publications. People: we’re saluting the three founders of the Chinese Historical Society (Paul Louie, William Mason and Paul DeFalla) and the 106 Charter Members who joined in the period between November 1, 1975 and December 31, 1976. Place: the Chinatown Heritage Center was purchased twenty years ago and has served as the headquarters of CHSSC since. Programs: Golden Dragon Parade (Chinese New Year); Ching Ming, Golden Spike Awards, genealogy workshops; monthly speakers at Castelar, Chinatown tours. Publications: publications produced by CHSSC can be considered not only the biography of Chinese Americans in Southern California, but also the life of the Society. News ‘N Notes is the monthly newsletter of the Chinese Historical Society of Southern California and the Gum Saan Journal is the semi-annual and annual publications that feature a range of scholarly explorations of the historical, cultural and humanistic aspects of Chinese American experiences, particularly relating to Southern California, and popular writing on contemporary issues of relevance to the Chinese American community.
- The dinner will salute those Charter Members special award recognition.

Sponsorship Opportunities

Table sponsorships—the dinner brochures identify six sponsorship levels.

Congratulatory ad/message—do you have a special message for the Chinese Historical Society at 40? Or, for Charter Members? Provide an ad for the event program book or CHSSC can create a special graphical message for you for inclusion in the program book. Details are in the dinner brochure.

Centerpieces—decorative centerpieces for the dining tables can add celebration and sparkle to the event venue. Consider sponsoring the centerpieces and receive public recognition in print and during the presentation. Contact Fenton Eng for more information.

Silent Auction and Raffle Items—please consider donation items for our silent auction and raffle. The Auction and Raffle co-Chairs Marian Chew and Helen Quon have written a special request:

We need your help with donation of items for our Raffle and Silent Auction. All donated items must be valued at $15 or more. Some examples are: gift certificates, tickets to events, small appliances, gift sets or gift baskets). With dinner brochure in hand, you can ask the businesses you frequent to sponsor a table, buy an ad for the dinner program, or donate their merchandise for our gift baskets. Your help is much appreciated!
